Greetings from Israel !

Dear P.B.B.C. Family:

Just a moment to catch you up to speed on our travels here in the Holy Land. So much has happened in the last few days it is somewhat overwhelming to comprehend it all.

Each morning we load the bus at 7:30 a.m. and do not return until 7:00 in the evening where we break for supper and then head to the classroom for a 1 1/2 hr. lecture. The classes have been extremely interesting, but it is sometimes dif

One of the greatest sights for me personally, was drinking from the brook where Gideon chose his three hundred men. We even had the opportunity to perform a mock re-enactment of the beginning of the battle. (I have a whole new respect for the art of "blowing a trumpet"!!) Today, we walked 600 yards through Hezekiah's tunnel, where he re-routed the spring to save Israel from the hand of the Assyrians. The story found in II Chronicles 32, is an amazing mira

We have been in the city of Jerusalem the last two days. The enormous site of the temple mount is simply incredible. Just one wall of the temple mount is 300 yds. in length. We can only imagine the grandeur of Solomon's temple.

We have attached a few pictures and hope you enjoy them. I don't know if we will have internet connection the next couple of days, so please continue to pray for us and for our flight home on Monday. We miss our church family greatly and look forward to being back in the services with you on Wednesday eve
Thank you for your faithfulness to the Lord and, once again, for your ex
This "Anniversary gift" has indeed been the trip of a lifetime and we are forever grateful for your kindness to our family.

Serving Him... & loving it,
